Dear David,

I'm writing to congratulate you on Reid Technology Ltd being named a finalist in the Renewables Impact category at this year's NZI National Sustainable Business Network awards.

It was fantastic to see so many extraordinary businesses recognised for their contribution towards transforming New Zealand into a model sustainable nation.

NZI has proudly supported the Sustainable Business Network since 2007 and we've been onboard as sponsor of the national awards throughout that time. Every year it seems the passion in the room and the calibre of the entries increases exponentially and we see more and more fantastic examples of the different and innovative ways businesses are answering the call to secure sustainable outcomes for their businesses and their communities.

Congratulations on your achievements from all of us at NZI.

Yours sincerely
